g. Description of the event :

Expert Lecture was arranged for Second Year Mechanical Engineering [Total 150 Plus students] on Study of Non-Metallic Materials which included :

Polymers, Ceramic materials , Cermets and Composite Materials.

The lecture was delivered considering the processing and application of Non metallic materials.

More focus of the lecture was on Polymers, Classification, Processing and Applications.

Behera Sir displayed many products at the beginning of the lecture and demonstrated with the products from time to time. Many practical aspects as regards Polymers and Composite materials were clarified.

Students were more curious about the Caron Fibres and dicussed the possibility of various Polymers, Ceramics and Composite materials. Students even showed interest in understanding the Nano Technology.
