

SANDIP FOUNDATION'S

SANDIP INSTITUTE OF ENGINEERING & MANAGEMENT, Nashik Report of Induction Program for First Year Students (03/01/2022)

The Induction Program of newly admitted Engineering Students of First Year (Batch: 2021-22) was held at Sandip Foundation's Sandip Institute of Engineering & Management, Nashik on 03/01/2022. In this program around 300 numbers of parents & students were participated.

Welcome speech was delivered by HOD of Engineering Sciences and Humanities Prof. Mrs. Rashmi J.Nayak. She addressed about the academic structure of the F.E course including examination pattern of University and other facilities of the institute. Also she gave the guideline of internal disciplines about Engineering & Technology to students as well as parents. She has also explained about Tutor System and Extra Soft Skill Training & English Language Sessions for First Year Students under VAP.

Prof. Indrajit Sonwane the Training & Placement officer of Sandip Foundation has delivered the speech about various types of VAP and Training Programs for the Students from First Year to Final Year run by the Sandip Campus. He had discussed with the students about requirements of various companies and what imitative Sandip Foundation is taking to make them employable for those reputed top-notch companies. He had discussed about journey to Super Dreams.

Dr.D.P.Patil the principal of the institute addressed the students about various opportunities in the field of Engineering & Technology. Also the gathering about the need of proper time management to get the optimum result. Also he gave the guidance about curriculum and co-curricular activities of institute. Finally he motivated the students to become a successful person to develop and build the nation.

In the program, felicitation of all top rank holders of previous First Year batch was done by the Principal, Deans and Heads of the various Departments. The topper students shared their study tips with the students & appreciated the Inspirational teaching-learning atmosphere in the institute. The program was anchored by the students Mr. Dhanesh Vasiakar & Ms. Jyoti Karki. The vote of thank was delivered by Prof. Mohsin Khatik.

The all faculty members & other supporting staffs took extra efforts for the smooth arrangement of the program. The Parents of newly admitted students were very happy about the institute. The program was concluded with the National Anthem.

The honorable Chairman Dr. Sandip Kumar Jha and Academic Facilitator Prof. Pramod karole of Sandip Foundation has appreciated the institute for successful completion of the Induction Program also congratulate the toppers and convey the best wishes for newly admitted students of First Year 2021-22.

