Virtuoso Optoelectronics Limited was established on 11th September 2015. VOEPL took its first steps into White Goods Manufacturing by laying the foundation for manufacturing of Air Conditioners (ACs) VOEPL successfully manufactured and shipped out its first batch of Air Conditioners (ACs) for its esteemed customer - M/s Voltas Limited. Stared supplying Emergency Lamps to M/s Panasonic Life Solutions India Private Limited (Formerly Anchor Electricals Private Limited) Virtuoso, the name itself means highly skilled, and true to its name the company has embarked upon a journey to become highly skilled at what they do. A relatively young organization with a little over 5 years of vintage but with very high aspirations. One rarely comes across examples of companies who have moved so fast and found its feet in no time. A company reflecting the relentless pursuit of its young promoter in establishing for itself a name and repute. A company that is quickly transforming from just another manufacturing partner fro OEMs, to a very well organized, structured and focused player in the business. Virtuoso has the right assets both immovable and human to take up the challenge and succeed in the highly competitive space of OEM manufacturing. Right vision, right focus and an unending thirst to learn and improve are the hallmarks of Virtuoso."
