- 1 . Event Title: Celebration of Education Day. FDP on Generative Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning (GAIML).
- 2. Event Date: 11/11/2023 to 15/11/2023
- 3. Event Conduction Duration: One Week.
- 4. Event Venue: Online Mode,
- 5. No. of Attendee: Teaching Staff of Various Engineering Colleges.
- 6. Program Objective & Outcome:

The purpose of the FDP on GAIML 2024 is to explore the synergistic potential of AI, ML and Generative AI fields and equip participants with the knowledge and skills to leverage their combined strengths for innovation and advancement in research, education and industry. Its intention is to empower participants to contribute more effectively in academic and professional advancements in GAI and Open AI tools. To deliver the sessions at FDP, highly qualified, professional and renowned resource speakers were selected.

Outcome : The Five Day Faculty Development Program (FDP) on ‘Generative Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning’ completed successfully. There was total 572 participants from across various parts of India registered for the program and more than 260 participants were successfully attended and received participation certificate.

7. Event Photos:

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. The main content is a slide titled "Machine Learning Approach" with the following text:

- There are several useful machine learning algorithms we can use for text classification.
- The most popular ones are:
 - Decision Tree
 - K-Nearest Neighbors
 - Naive Bayes classifiers
 - Support vector machines
 - Logistic Regression
 - Deep learning algorithms

The slide also features the "m3u skills" logo in the top right and "tusharkute.com" in the bottom left. A small video window shows the host, Tushar B. Kute. On the right, the "Participants (240)" list includes: Gnanakumar Ganesan, Gokul Choudhary, Harsh SANGER, Hemali Shah, HITENDRA KUMAR SINGH, and iPhone. Below the list are "Invite", "Unmute me", and "Reclaim host" buttons. The chat window shows a message from "challapalli jhansirani" at 12:28: "share the WhatsApp link to join in that group". Other chat messages include "T NEETHA 12:28", "181", "Charu 12:28", and "405 Charu". The chat also shows "ATTENDANCE LINK" and "Who can see your messages? Recording on". The bottom of the screen shows the Windows taskbar with the search bar and various application icons.
